Against an order under Section 78 of the Maharashtra Co-operative Societies' Act, 1960, an appeal lies under Section 152. In these circumstances, it would not be appropriate and proper to exercise writ jurisdiction under Article 226 of the Constitution. However, while dismissing the Petition on the ground that the Petitioner has an efficacious alternate remedy, liberty is granted to the Petitioner, if she so advised, to move an application for the grant of interim relief in appeal. In the event that such an appeal is filed within two weeks from today, the Appellate Authority shall consider the appeal without considering the bar of limitation.
